The citizens of Mt. Sterling, and vicinity will petition Congress for an appropriation to improve the Licking river from Liberty to Rowan County to West Liberty in Morgan County a distance of 60 miles.

A BILL has been introduced in Congress to appropriate $500,000 for the erection of a monument in New York City to General Grant. The bill has been reported favorably to the House and will probably be passed. If passed, the appropriation will be expended under the direction of the Secretary of War.

The Cliesapeake and Ohio managers are quietly at work taking measurements and getting estimates on a new cut bridging the Ohio River at Huntington, W. Va. It is believed that it is necessary to build the bridge at any point above Covington that Huntington is very much better than Ashland, the former proposed point of crossing, for very good reasons.—(Cincinnati Times-Star.

"The goose bone soup that the weather for February will be clear and cold throughout, succeeded by an early and mild spring. Long may the goose bone survive. May its shadow never be lost."

Dear brother, aren't you a little premature in offering the praises of the goose bone? February hasn't come and gone, it hasn't been clear and cold throughout nor has it been followed by an early and mild spring. Time enough for praises after the February days "roll by."

* The war between the gas companies at St. Louis is still on. The council has passed the water gas bill over the Mayor's veto, and has extended the old company's franchise from 1890 to 1920. The new company will be confined to one part of the city until after 1890, and has reduced the rates to $1 per hour. The old company is bound by the action of the council to reduce its rates to $1.25 per thousand after 1890.

Since the Prohibition laws went into effect in Iowa, the former liquor dealers have been harassed by officers of the law to a great extent. To get even with these minions of the law who come nosing around, the liquor dealers now set traps for them, similar to those used by early settlers for catching bears. An exchange says: "A hole nine feet deep, with sharp stakes at the bottom, dug in the cellar of a Des Moines saloon, captured its victim but did not maim him."

The Cincinnati Price Current says: "The number of hogs packed in the West last week was 290,000, compared with 270,000 in the same week last year. The total to date, since November 1, is 5,255,000, against 5,265,000 last week. The movement at the principal points since Nov. 1 is as follows: Chicago, 2,085,000; Kansas City, 523,000; Cincinnati, 311,000; St. Louis, 265,000; Milwaukee, 270,000; Indianapolis, 242,000; Cedar Rapids, La., 159,000; St. Joseph, 109,000; Louisville, 121,000; Cleveland, 57,000.

The bill to prevent pawnbrokers from hiding the proceeds from theft, robbery and burglary, is of course opposed by thieves, robbers, burglars and such pawnbrokers as find their wares wrong by its provisions. Honest people can give no reasonable grounds for throwing the protection of the law about the safe of a rascally fellow, which has hidden in its secret recesses the results of a successful burglary or highway robbery. The Whalen bill, which exposes theft, is in the interest of honesty and should become a law.—(Conner-Journal.

The Cliesapeake and Ohio Company of Baltimore, has reduced the price of its coal gas to fifty cents per 1,000 feet, which leads the New York Journal of Commerce into a retrospection at home. The New York gas companies a few years ago reduced the price of gas to large consumers to seventy cents, which rate, being operated a considerable period, made dividends for the stockholders. This suggests the inference that, while fifty cents is a war rate in Baltimore yet the Cliesapeake Company apparently selected that particular price, because while entailing heavy losses upon its rivals, would in the mean-while pay all the expenses of its own campaign. The Louisville Gas Company advises its patrons that so long as they behave themselves they will be served with gas at not more than $1.50, which also means not less than $1.50.—(Courier-Journal.

ALL PURE GUESS WORK.

THE NEW ENGLISH CABINET IS YET IN EMBRYO.

Mr. Gladstone is Not Even Certain that He will be Next For—He Remembers a Rush—Salisbury May be Transcend—Lord Hartington—Minister Nelson.

LONDON, Jan. 30.—All statements concerning the personnel of the new cabinet are pure guess work. Mr. Gladstone is not even certain that he will be next. He well remembers that in a parallel case he was slighted for a few hours. A repetition of this piece of royal folly is, however, improbable. In conversation with a gentleman whose initials warrant the question, "Who will your advisers be in event of your accepting office?" Mr. Gladstone replied: "It would be inconsistent with the respect due her majesty for me to assume that she will exercise her prerogative in any particular manner. I have done nothing beyond learning the opinion of certain of my colleagues on the question of Home Rule and other pressing matters."

This is the whole story, all current reports to the contrary, notwithstanding. The ministry have resigned, and the leaders of parties and factions are resting on their oars until the reassembling of parliament on Monday, when something definite may be gleaned concerning the political future. While Salisbury is less likely to be drawn in his acts than Beaconsfield, he is still the pupil of that great master of parliamentary craft, and will use all the means at his disposal to secure the success of his policy. He is fully convinced that Home Rule in the form demanded by Parnell is not acceptable to the English masses, and it is just possible that he may be induced to appeal to the country again on this issue. He looks upon the modification of land reform as a hindrance, and it is hardly to be doubted that the queen shares this opinion.

On the Liberal side Lord Granville is in cordial accord with Gladstone, but all efforts to secure the assent of Lord Hartington to secure like Home Rule failed. At the close of the discussion, it was said that the king's choice of being summoned by the queen in place of Gladstone. Many loudly insist that her majesty will find it next to impossible to reconcile Gladstone's position with her own view of the wide divergence of sentiment existing between the speech from the throne and its utterances while speaking to this effect.

The balance of opinion, however, is against the selection of Hartington. It is argued that he would refuse to accept office in the first place, and that were he willing he could not form a cabinet. In any event he could do nothing without Gladstone's assistance, which is almost out of the question. Meanwhile the Tory newspapers are striving to influence public opinion and excite British prejudice by publishing and circulating the wildest writings and orations of the Nationalists.

One prominent instance of this class is noted in the wide publication of United Ireland's report, "Opinion in Parliament," an article written in rather bad taste, relating to the events of opening of parliament. It describes the queen's "war, unhappy face, surrounded by her white-haired subjects, etc." These paragraphs are undoubtedly selected for the purpose of augmenting the popular dislike of anything Irish, and are read with a view to the possibilities of another election.

ALL QUIET AT COLUMBUS.

A Few Left Who Flee to Gore—In Caucus—The Future.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 30.—Everything is quiet about the caucus and the impression goes around that a compromise is going to be effected despite the efforts of the big game of both parties who pine for gore. The conference committee has agreed upon one principle which has been ratified by both caucuses. That is that the committee on privileges and elections shall select a sub-committee consisting of three Democrats and three Republicans who shall take the testimony in the case of the House of Representatives.

The rules provide that there shall be no such jointer, that each case must be tried separately. If Republicans do not agree to this compromise it is likely to be effected. It now looks as if when the senate meets an adjournment it will Monday would be held. At 10 o'clock the senate met and immediately adjourned. The conference committee is in session at this hour. The Democrats are insisting upon a complete knock down on the part of Kennedy, so far as the senate rules are concerned. They say that these rules are adopted at the beginning of the session must be respected. This point is made particularly with reference to the matter of jointer of caucuses.

Democrats in the conference committee have concluded that two republicans may be added to the senate committee on privileges and elections. The right is reserved by both sides to take back all concessions in case an agreement is not reached. The fight now is on the rules which the seventeen republicans adopted to govern the contest. The Democrats insist that such action shall be considered a nullity, but republicans are fighting for the rules. The democrats say they will not pick this point nor that concerning a jointer of caucuses.

AN IMMENSE BRONZE GATE.

Call for the Vanderbilt Mausoleum at New Drop, Staten Island. New York, Jan. 30.—Shortly before the death of William H. Vanderbilt he signed a contract with the Henry Bonnard Bronze company for $50,000 or $60,000 worth of bronze for the Vanderbilt mausoleum in the Moravian cemetery at New Drop, planned by the late Commodore. There are to be twenty-two double and two single gates, six of the former being each 9 feet 8 inches tall, and 5 feet 4 inches wide, and sixteen, 8 feet 9 inches square. The two single gates will be 8 inches by 7 feet 4 inches. In addition to these there are sixteen lantern guards and frames with glass work 7 feet high and 4 feet wide. Upward of 50,000 pounds, or nearly twenty tons of standard bronze and phosphor bronze will be used in their construction.

By which they will be hung and riveted in position. A separate mould is required for each piece, both large and small, so many as they thus reproduced. Although the workmen were all imported from Europe for this work, they were selected from the celebrated bronze foundries of Barthelemy and Tulleau Freres of Paris, the utmost care must be taken with every casting, as they are required to be free from cracks or blemish of any kind. Richard M. Hunt, the architect who made the designs—which are the old wrought-iron style of the thirteenth and fourteenth century—personally inspects each piece as soon as cast and his approval after such examination is necessary before it can be sent to the finishing room.

The first of the sixteen double gates has just been cast. It is the largest single bronze casting of that character ever made in this country and probably in the world, and is a marvel of workmanship. It will require the services of a dozen men at least a month after the casting of the mausoleum is finished to put up the bronze work. After it is completed it is claimed that so far as this part is concerned the mausoleum will be practically burglar proof.

WORSE THAN LEPROSY.

Five Cases of Glanders in Human Beings Reported in Illinois.

CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—Dr. J. H. Rauch, secretary of the state board of health, received a letter today saying that the son of a farmer in Richfield Township, Adams County, was afflicted with a disease believed to be glanders. The boy had been taking care of two horses which were attacked with the disease and had been ordered shot by Assistant State Veterinarian Stimpson.

Dr. Rauch says the boy may be kept out of school, and ordered an investigation of the case. There have been altogether five cases of glanders in human beings reported in this state, of which three proved fatal. The disease is said to be one of the most frightful disorders that mankind is afflicted with, not even excepting leprosy. Thus far no remedy has been discovered to overcome it when in an advanced state.

BURNED FOR AN ARM.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Jan. 30.—This jury in the case of Joseph P. Thorne, a switchman against the Buffalo Railroad for $10,000 damages for the loss of his arm, awards the plaintiff $10,000. The plaintiff, while in the act of unloading a car on August 29, 1883, had his left arm so badly crushed that it had to be amputated, and claimed that the accident was due to the negligence of the company in not having the engine in proper repair.

FATHERS.

A stock company with a capital of $600,000 is being formed at Paris to purchase and run the Paris Flouring Mills. About $3,500 has been subscribed.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla wonderfully improves the complexion, and brings to old and young the bloom of health. As a purifier of the blood it has no equal.

Rev. C. J. HOWES, Presiding Elder of Covington district M. E. Church, will preach in the M. E. Church to-morrow evening at 7 o'clock, and each evening during the week.

ANDERSON JOHNSON, a blind negro has been indicted at Carlisle for illegal voting. He believed in voting "early and often." The Bourbon News thinks "the poor old man couldn't see what he was doing and ought to be excused."

Stop that cough, by the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral—the best specific ever known for all diseases of the throat and lungs. It will soothe the rough feeling in your throat, give the vocal organs flexibility and vitality, and enable you to breathe and speak clearly.

A "CLARK COUNTY" farmer had 800 pounds of bacon stolen recently. The thieves evidently wanted every thing in sight as they had moved a barrel of vinegar some distance when discovered, and forced the farmer to retreat when he attempted to recover the property.

The fellow Brown, who fleeced the Danville Oldfellows, played his little game successfully on the members of the order here, receiving some $20 in money and his passage to Jellico. He is a slick tongued rascal and is especially liable to take in the unwary.—[Stanford Journal.]

PARTIES who owe for back subscription to the DAILY BULLETIN will confer a favor by settling with the carriers next Monday. The carriers are required to make a settlement at the beginning of every month, and a full payment of back dues will be duly appreciated by them.

SAM JONES, who is stirring up the sinners of Cincinnati, evidently has an eye for the beautiful. No one will doubt this when they read this which Sam recently got off in one of his sermons. He says: "The most beautiful sight in the world is to see a family around a cheerful fire, with the head of the family reading his local newspaper, which he has paid for in advance."

PROBABLY very few are aware that the popular Ben Davis apple is a native of Kentucky, but such is a fact. The original tree, from which this variety sprung, may yet be seen in the orchard of B. K. Davis, living on the Sparta pike, two miles from Owenton, and it bears fruit every year. This apple is the favorite of Kentucky farmers and especially suitable to this climate, bringing large returns by a careful system of cultivation.—[Winchester Democrat.]

Clean the Street Crossings.
We would suggest to the honorable Street Committee that they have the street crossings raised. The mud on them is at least two inches deep.—[Frankfort Capital.]

The Capital's suggestions to the Frankfort officials are good. There is no earthly reason for having the crossings if they can't be kept free from mud and filth. It's only in wet, rainy weather principally that crossings are needed, and if not kept clean they don't answer the purpose for which they were intended.

THAT SERIOUS CHARGE.

The Court Refuses to Hold Him Longer.

The examining trial of Harry S. Hill, on a charge of bigamy (arrest of whose arrest was made in our last issue) was called before Justice Vi-ro and Marsh, at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon, in "Squire Grant's" office. A perfect jam of idle sight-seers was on hand, all anxious to get a glimpse of the accused and of his companion, Miss Wood. The crowd soon became so large that the trial was adjourned to the Mayor's office. When the prisoner was brought from jail, and Miss Wood came in, in response to a subpoena from the Commonwealth, they were eyed by the curious through an opening in the window from some distance. Such crowds always retard the proceedings of a court. Composed of all elements of society, from the worst "bum" and "ward-striker" to the best citizen, it is almost next to an impossibility for the officers to maintain order. There is one very effective way to remedy this "evil," and that is for justice to exercise the power conferred upon them by law, and exclude from the court room all but officers of the court, members of the bar and the parties and witnesses in the case on trial.

When the case was called against Hill, County Attorney Whitaker asked for a continuance, in order to procure witnesses. This was objected to by Thomas R. Plister, Hill's attorney, and a long argument followed. The parties from Fleming County, who had indicted the arrest, were not on hand to prosecute. It transpired that they had been here earlier in the day but had left on the noon train.

It was learned that the only foundation they had upon which to base their charge was a notice published in the Central Methodist last November or December stating that it was reported Hill and Miss Wood were traveling at that time through Missouri as man and wife giving elocutionary entertainments. The Central Methodist stated that Hill had deserted his wife at that place (Cattletown) previous to the notice. The motion for a continuance was overruled at the close of the arguments and the Commonwealth failing to proceed any farther the warrant was dismissed and the defendant discharged. The action of the court is approved by the citizens who heard the proceedings. Hill and Miss Wood were still in the city last night, stopping at Heiser's European Hotel, and manifesting no disposition to hurry away from the scene of their troubles.
